Encouraging Words: Nuggets/Wisdom “A Friend”

Have you really considered what it means to be a friend. Friends are brought into our lives for a season, a reason, or a lifetime. As the scripture reminds us, a friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for a time of adversity. Having a friend beside you is far better than walking alone; if you fall, there is someone there to lift you up and reassure you that everything will be alright. Christ died on the cross to demonstrate His ultimate love for us. Scripture says that greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends. This is the greatest sacrifice anyone can make. When true love is involved, there is no doubt about what we will do for those we consider friends.
